-MR-

----

1. What is Selenium..?

- It is a Open source tool for the Automation testing
- It is used to do the Automation testing for Web based application
- It supports different programming language like Java, Python C#
- It supports different web browsers like Google Chrome, Opera-mini, Microsoft Edge
- It can run at different Operating system like Window, Linux, Mac

----

2. How to download the chrome driver..?

- Search chrome driver for selenium in the google chrome
- Download the chromedriver.exe based our current chrome version
- To know the current version of chromedriver.exe, Setting--> About Chrome --> Version name detail will available

----

3. How to launch the Browser..?

```
System.setProperty("webdriver.chrome.driver","chromedriver.exe");

WebDriver driver=new ChromeDriver();
```

----

3. How to maximize the browser…?

```
driver.manage().window().window().maximize();
```

----

4. How to minimize the browser…?

```
driver.manage().window().window().minimize();
```

----

5. What is sleep()..?

The sleep() is used to stop the execution of programme for the particular time.

```
Thread.sleep(4000);
```

We should pass the time duration as argument to the sleep method.

----

6. What is get()..?

The get() is used to hit the link in the browser.

driver.get("www.google.com");

We should pass the link value as argument in the method as String value.